

GSP ready for return

TORONTO
It seemed only fitting that the UFC chose the Hockey Hall of Fame to hype Georges St-Pierre's comeback fight against middleweight champion Michael Bisping.

Back in 2010, UFC president Dana White stirred a Maple Leaf hornet's nest when he declared that GSP, then welterweight title-holder and mixed martial arts' pay-per-view king, was the "most famous athlete to ever, ever — in the history of the world — come out of Canada."

When someone brought up Wayne Gretzky's name, White doubled down.

"Super nice guy," he said of No. 99. "Got nothing against him. Fly him over to England, fly him over to Asia, fly him to anywhere in Europe, Georges St-Pierre gets mobbed, nobody knows who the hell Wayne Gretzky is."

Seven years later, White may have seen the irony of sitting centre stage in the Hockey Hall of Fame's Great Hall, with

"This is cool," said White, no doubt hoping that GSP's appeal lives on four years after his last fight.

While White and GSP were on their best behaviour Friday, Bisping (31-7-0) embraced his role as heel ahead of the Nov. 4 showdown at UFC 217 at Madison Square Garden.

The brash Brit, who now calls sunny California home, repeated many of the slurs he had hurled at a Las Vegas news conference a week ago.

Dispensing with the sunglasses this time, Bisping made fun of St-Pierre's French accent, accused him of taking steroids, called him a boring fighter and a "lizard," and dubbed the pro-GSP fans in the audience "douchebags."

Yin leads KEB Hana Bank Championship by two after second round

The Associated Press

INCHEON, Korea, Republic Of

Angel Yin shot a 7-under 65 and took a two-stroke lead after the second round of the KEB Hana Bank Championship on Friday.

Yin had an eagle on the par-5 fifth hole and six birdies, offset by a lone bogey on No. 17, to finish at 11-under 133, two shots ahead of overnight leader

Sung Hyun Park (69).

Park, who won the U.S. Women's Open for her first major and was ranked No. 2 in the world, was tied with fellow South Koreans In Gee Chun (65) and Jin Young Ko (67).

On the fifth, Yin struck a 6 iron to 12 feet and coolly sank the eagle putt.

"That got everything started," Yin said. "I made a few pars in the beginning, but that eagle just fired everything up."

Smith, McKenzie, Gilbert share PGA Tour Champions lead

CARY, N.C.

Jerry Smith, David McKenzie and Gibby Gilbert III shared the first-round lead at 5-under 67 on Friday in the PGA Tour Champions' SAS Championship.

Jerry Kelly, Bart Bryant and Fran Quinn were a stroke back at Prestonwood Country Club in the 50-and-over tour's regular-season finale.

Smith closed with a bogey on the par-4 ninth.

"A tough hole, especially with the wind blowing," Smith said. "I tried to be aggressive with the driver and hit a natural kind of cut for me down there, but I didn't pull it off and hit it in the fairway bunker and just had to pitch it out. That's really the only option I had."

Making his fifth start on the tour, McKenzie entered the week 64th in the Charles Schwab Cup standings. The top 72 will advance to the playoff opener next week in Richmond, Virginia.

The Australian qualified for the event Monday, shooting a 3-under 69 and winning a three-man playoff for the fourth and final spot.

"Ultimately golf takes care of itself,"

McKenzie. "If you play good golf, you don't worry about all those other things. I can't control what everyone else does. All I can do is try and play as well as I can."
