

Flames, Jets look forward to meeting in Regina for Heritage Classic

REGINA
The NHL's outdoor game in Regina doesn't have a player from the province of Saskatchewan in it, or even a Western Hockey League Regina Pats alumnus.

So the player with perhaps the strongest emotional tie to Saturday's Heritage Classic between the Calgary Flames and Winnipeg Jets at Mosaic Stadium is Flames defenceman Travis Hamonic. The 29-year-old from St. Malo, Man., played his major junior hockey for the Moose Jaw Warriors — less than an hour's drive west of the provincial capital on the Trans-Canada and thus the traditional rival of the Pats.

A concussion kept Hamonic out of the 2014 Stadium Series at Yankee Stadium when he was a New York Islander, so he'll play his first outdoor games on the Prairies.

"Unfortunately I had to watch that one from the side, but I've got a chance now to do it in Western Canada at home," Hamonic said.

"The Prairie provinces are certainly close to my heart, so I think it's going to be better this time around."

While there is a dearth of home-province representation Saturday, about 22 current NHL players hail from Saskatchewan, including 2019 Stanley Cup winners Tyler Bozak (Regina), Jaden Schwartz (Wilcox) and Brayden Schenn (Saskatoon) of the St. Louis Blues.

The province punches above its weight in per-capita representation, with 516 players from Saskatchewan winning a combined 171 Stanley Cups in NHL history.

Hamonic played for Canada in the 2010 world junior hockey championship in Saskatoon and Regina.

Given his roots, Hamonic can't help but be aware of the Canadian Football League rivalry between the Winnipeg Blue Bombers and Saskatchewan Roughriders.

Since Mosaic is the home of the Roughriders, he expects to see green football jerseys mingling with Calgary red and Winnipeg blue.

"I would imagine. Probably some watermelons on the heads too I think," he said.

The Jets (5-6-0) are the "home" team, while the Flames (6-5-1) are the road team in the NHL's 28th outdoor game since 2003 and ninth in the last three years.

Both teams will wear vintage jerseys — the Jets their World Hockey Association uniforms of the 1970s and the Flames a mashup commemorating 40 years in the NHL and their 1989 Stanley Cup victory.

Tri-Area Intermunicipal Development Plan Open Houses

The City of Medicine Hat, Town of Redcliff, and Cypress County are hosting two Open Houses to present proposed amendments to the Intermunicipal Development Plan (IDP). The IDP is a land use planning tool that outlines how planning-related items are managed for areas in proximity to the border of two or more municipalities.

6:30 PM - 8:30 PM
Wednesday, November 6, 2019
Cypress County Municipal Building
816 - 2 Avenue, Dunmore

6:30 PM - 8:30 PM
Thursday, November 7, 2019
Redcliff Legion
302 Broadway Avenue E, Redcliff

Recent changes to the Municipal Government Act (MGA) require that IDPs be consistent with an Intermunicipal Collaboration Framework (ICF). An ICF identifies services provided by and shared between the municipalities. The ICF is currently being prepared, and along with the updated IDP, is required to be in place by April 1, 2020.

An IDP recognizes that municipalities are stronger together by encouraging and creating awareness for regional opportunities, strengthening municipal relationships, and encouraging mutual success for Medicine Hat, Redcliff, and Cypress County.

WATER MAIN FLUSHING & FIRE HYDRANT INSPECTIONS

Environmental Utilities performs regular, routine maintenance to uphold the water quality and system infrastructure by annually flushing water mains and inspecting fire hydrants.

During these operations, there may be some discoloration in the water which is not harmful to consume and will disappear when flushing is complete. Please note that discoloured water should not be used for laundry and that fluctuating water pressure may also be noticed.

Should discoloration persist beyond three hours, turn on your cold water tap or an outside sprinkler and let the water run for several minutes until the water runs clear.
