

World record for rowers

The Canadian Press

LUCERNE, Switzerland
The Canadian men's eight crew advanced Friday to the final of the Samsung World Rowing Cup with a world record time.

The Canadians won the 2,000-metre heat in five minutes and 19.35 seconds to break the previous world's best (5:19.85) set at the 2004 Athens Olympics by the U.S.

Poland was second Friday on 05:21.75, while Britain was third in 05:22.71. Only Canada advanced directly to the final from this heat.

"At the start, I was thinking about all the training we have done and all the confidence I have in these guys," said 2008 Olympic gold medalist Andrew Byrnes of Toronto. "I think we went out there, and we showed we have the strength and the speed to do really well this year."

The Canadian women's eight also advanced on Friday with a first-place time.

Frank Mir is a two-time UFC heavyweight champion with more victories in the division than any fighter. That's why he knows it's never been tougher to pull off what he's trying to accomplish at UFC 146.

The UFC is going big in its Memorial Day weekend show, headlined by five heavyweight fights at the MGM Grand Garden in Las Vegas. Junior Dos Santos will make his first title defence against Mir, who marvels at the UFC's current roster of enormous fighters.

"The UFC has always had the best fighters in every weight, but typically in the heavyweight division, (only) the top five was dangerous guys fighting for the title," Mir said. "The top 10, maybe you'd talk about them in the conversation. I don't think five or six years ago, we could have had a card that had five bouts of heavyweights fighting — and then we've had injuries, too. If we'd had a card five years ago with five heavyweight fights and somebody got injured, the whole card would have had to be scrapped."

Heavyweights jumped to the forefront of the UFC in recent years with the rise and fall of Brock Lesnar, who quit his pro wrestling career and made a high-profile run to the UFC title, stopping Mir (16-5) along the way in July 2009. Lesnar battled injuries and illness, but also struggled to compete with the new wave of dynamic talent arriving in the division, eventually retiring last December after getting pulverized by Alistair Overeem.

Mir's title shot would have belonged to Overeem, but the Dutch kickboxer failed a drug test, clearing the way for Mir to attempt to reclaim the heavyweight belt just two days after his 33rd birthday in a fight with Dos Santos, the Brazilian boxer with humble beginnings and a remarkable MMA pedigree.

"It's a huge moment in my life and career," Mir said. "Eventually, one day we retire and we're forgotten as athletes, but people try to somehow make their mark on history. It'll give me something to brag about to my grandchildren."

Not exactly Bolt-like

The Associated Press

OSTRAVA, Czech Republic
Usain Bolt won the 100 metres in 10.04 seconds in the wind at the Golden Spike meet Friday, his first victory in Europe leading to the London Olympics.

The Jamaican had a slow start but pulled ahead in the final meters. He failed to improve his season best of 9.82 from a May meet in Jamaica. Kim Collins of St. Kitts and Nevis finished second in 10.19, followed by Darvis Patton of the U.S. in 10.22.

Justyn Warner of Markham, Ont., was sixth. "It's hard to explain," Bolt said. "I don't really know what went wrong."

Before the race, Bolt said he was working on his notoriously slow start in hopes of bettering his world records in the 100 and 200 in London. Bolt won three gold medals at the 2008 Beijing Games.

"At the start I didn't feel as explosive as I normally feel like," he said.

The runners had to start twice after Simon Magakwe false started. That was something familiar for Bolt, who failed to defend the world championship title in the 100 in Daegu, South Korea after he was disqualified for a false start.

Elsewhere, Canadian Dylan Armstrong won the shot put to reclaim the world's No. 1 ranking.

Priscilla Lopes-Schliep of Whitby, Ont., was second in the women's 100-metre hurdles.

FIRE HYDRANT & WATER MAIN FLUSHING

The Environmental Utilities Department will test and flush fire hydrants plus water mains until October 2012. This is an annual maintenance activity that maintains water quality and system infrastructure. Residents may notice some discoloring of water, which is not harmful and will disappear when flushing is complete. Fluctuating pressure may also be noticed. Should discoloration persist beyond three hours, you may wish to flush the water from your home for a few minutes by watering your lawn or running your tap. Please note that the flushing in your home will not correct private plumbing/corrosion problems. Thank you for your understanding.
