

Jays bash their way to another victory

The Associated Press

MIAMI
Regardless of how Ricky Romero has pitched, he's been provided with plenty of run support.

Jose Bautista homered and drove in three runs, Kelly Johnson also had three RBIs and the Toronto Blue Jays backed Romero handsomely in a 12-5 victory over the skidding Miami Marlins on Friday night.

"I've been lucky," Romero said. "The hitters have done their part every time I've pitched it seems like."

Toronto had supported Romero (8-1) with an average of 9.16 runs per game entering Friday, which put him third in the majors. He did not have his best stuff against the Marlins, allowing four runs, seven hits and four walks. But he did give the Blue Jays seven much-needed innings after Toronto placed three starters on the disabled list in the last week.

"It's been a grind, it honestly has," Romero said. "Nothing has come easy for me this year. It's no secret. I'm battling, grinding and trying to do everything possible to get deep in the game."

Brett Lawrie had three hits and scored four times to help the Blue Jays end an eight-game losing streak to the Marlins, who own a 17-5 advantage in the series.

Miami has lost five straight and 14 of 16 overall.

Giancarlo Stanton, Omar Infante and Gaby Sanchez homered for the Marlins.

METS 6, YANKEES 4

NEW YORK — Ike Davis received a bit of help from the New York Yankees on his three-run homer and Frank Francisco closed out the Mets' victory Friday night after calling their crosstown rivals "chickens."

Davis's fly to right was helped over by a leaping Nick Swisher.

BRAVES 4, RED SOX 1

BOSTON — Jair Jurrjens made an impressive return to the majors by limiting the Red Sox to one run and three hits in Atlanta's win.

RANGERS 4, ROCKIES 1

ARLINGTON, Texas — Roy Oswalt pitched efficiently into the seventh inning in his first start of the season and Texas won its seventh straight.

ORIOLES 2, NATIONALS 1

BALTIMORE — Jason Hammel pitched eight innings of five-hit ball and had a career high-tying 10 strikeouts to lead Baltimore.

TWINS 5, REDS 4

CINCINNATI — Ryan Doumit and Ben Revere each had four hits as Minnesota handed Cincinnati its season-high fourth straight loss.

BREWERS 1, WHITE SOX 0, 10 INNINGS

CHICAGO — Zack Greinke pitched three-hit ball over nine innings and Rickie Weeks drove in the lone run with a single in the 10th to lead Milwaukee.

CARDINALS 11, ROYALS 4

KANSAS CITY, Mo. — Carlos Beltran hit two two-run doubles in his return to Kauffman Stadium and St. Louis pounded Kansas City starter Vin Mazzaro.
