

Tippett not happy after win

MINSK, Belarus
From coach Dave Tippett's viewpoint, Team Canada struggled through a 6-1 drubbing of Italy on Friday at the world hockey championship.

Canada won the game, its fourth in a row since opening the tournament with a shootout loss to France, but Tippett didn't offer much in the way of a positive review.

"We try to get better every game," Tippett said. "Today I would say that there was very few things in that game we could use to get better other than we capitalized on chances. So we'll put that game behind us and look at it as fortunate to capitalize on a lot of those chances and we look forward to Sweden."

Sunday's game against Sweden is Canada's measuring-stick game in the preliminary round. Italy, much like Denmark a day earlier, didn't provide much of a test.

"A game that I didn't think we played very well, but we capitalized on some chances," Tippett said. "I think our players recognized we were (playing) back-to-back and (were) trying to get through this game."

Canada started slow before Joel Ward scored 13:07 into the first period. Italian coach Tom Pokel felt the game changed when Canada's Alex Burrows was injured on a knee-on-knee hit from Joachim Ramoser with 56 seconds left.

Burrows left the game and did not return with a right leg injury. Ramoser was given a five-minute major penalty and an automatic game misconduct, and Cody Hodgson scored on the ensuing Canadian power play early in the second.

"That obviously took some momentum away from us when you're killing for five minutes against a strong power-play team," said Pokel, a native of Green Bay, Wis. "The third and fourth goals just killed us and took everything away from us."

Jason Chimera scored the third on a two-on-one with Mark Scheifele, and then Kyle Turris added the fourth while short-handed just over three minutes later after a perfect pass from Matt Read. Hodgson's second of the game and tournament-leading sixth goal made it 5-0 later in the period.

Along the way, Tippett was not happy about Canada's troubling trend of taking a lot of penalties. Four infractions in the second period gave Italy what he called "a bunch of extra practice time ... that was not ideal."

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., native David Borrelli scored for Italy 1:12 into the third.

FIRE HYDRANT & WATER MAIN FLUSHING

The Environmental Utilities Department will test and flush fire hydrants plus water mains until October 2014. This is an annual maintenance activity that maintains water quality and system infrastructure. Residents may notice some discoloring of water, which is not harmful and will disappear when flushing is complete. Fluctuating pressure may also be noticed. Should discoloration persist beyond three hours, you may wish to flush the water from your home for a few minutes by watering your lawn or running your tap. Please note that the flushing in your home will not correct private plumbing/corrosion problems. Thank you for your understanding.
