

Online Terms of Engagement

We encourage discussion, debate and free speech on the City of Medicine Hat's official online platforms. Comments and questions should be clean, constructive and on topic.

We must ensure our online spaces are fair, open and safe for all. With this in mind, we ask that you treat each other and us with respect when commenting and engaging in our online spaces. The following will not be tolerated and are subject to deletion:

- Posts that are disrespectful, hateful, libelous, defamatory, threatening, offensive, profane, discriminatory, racist or engage in personal attacks
- Spam and advertising
- Posts that include inaccurate, false or misleading information

Users who abuse this policy will be warned and may be reported. Repeated offenders will be banned.

City of Medicine Hat administrators reserve the right to determine when a user is in violation of the terms of use or commenting guidelines.

The views expressed by outside contributors do not necessarily represent the views of the City of Medicine Hat or its employees. The City of Medicine Hat does not endorse comments publicly posted.

If you have concerns about a user or a post, please send us a message through the page.
